Hongkong, however, is in the position of being able to start afresh, so far as the land still undisposed of is concerned, and all that we claim is that it should be administered for the benefit of the community with the same diligence and discretion that a private andowner would exercise in the administration of an estate for his own benefit. Here. we take it, "John O'Groat" agrees with us as he favours the periodical revision Crown rents previously advocated in this

With regard to land already disposed of needless to say, we advocate no interference with the terms on which it has been granted. It was because we conceived that the Praya Reclamation scheme could not be carried out by the Government without interfering with those terms in respect of the water frontage that we advocated its being carried out by the lot-holders themselves. There were not a few persons in the Colonywho would disclaim the name of socialists who yet, seeing there was a profit of a fev scant regard in order that the profit might be secured for the Colony at large. > Coming back to Hongkong, however, and the application of the principles enunci ated by our correspondent and ourselves, it may be useful to remind buyers of land leased by the Crown for 75 years that they are not buying leases in perpetuity. The Land Commission in their report said :-

Before very long it will be necessary that some-thing should be done in reference to the lenses for 75 years. The same difficulties will soon arise in dealng with themas arose with the 75 years' leases granted the early days of the colony, when the lot-holders looked forward to the fact that the termination their leases was within a measurable distance : remedy which the term was extended for a further period of 924 years. The lots become unmarketable tenants will do nothing toward repairs, or in the provement or sustenance of their dwellings; if they Dr. Siegert's Angostara were habitable towards the expiration of the term that is as much as they would be. No one has bough land on a 75 years' lease only, with the idea that the Grown would enforce its right of re-entry at the curl of 75 years and burn them out.

The lessees, however, while they do not expect to be turned out, must look forward Correspondents are requested to forward their name is revision of the rental at the expiry of the term, bringing it up to the figure the land is reasonably worth, allowance on a liberal scale being of course made for the lessee's improvements. This ought to have been the settlement arrived at in respect of the town lots, instead of extending the leases to 999

> The Siam Mercantile Gazette of the 18th annary save :- Two more concessions for Gol Mines have been signed and scaled this week both for the province of Lingi, south of Singora. The first in favour of Mr. Kim Ching, the Sismese Consul in Singapore, who is for this soncession in partnership with Mr. C. M. Allen of Perseverance Estate. Singapore. The second has been granted to Mr. Norman, the well known correspondent of the Pall Gasette. We most heartily congratulate the above named gentlemen on their success. Mr C. M. Allen has worked about fourteen years to obtain his concession and Mr. Norman his about as many days. One thing we regret is that the fact of Mr. Norman going in the Gold Mining line, will probably deprive the Pall Mall Gasette of an able writer and the public of some well written articles about Siam in the style of his letters about Peking, China Ac. The conditions on which the last concessions were given are 5 per cent, royalty on the outturn of gold and 15 per cent, on other miner als. THE SANITARY CONDITION OF KOWLOON:

The following minute by Mr. Osbert Chadwick was read at the meeting of the Sanitary Board yesterday afternoon. It was unsuimously regolved to transmit it to the Government ith the Board's favourable recommendation It is clear that the time has arrived for taking vigorous action, in order to improve the Sanitary condition of the Kowloon Peninsula. the tropics. We may not be able to get good and to prevent the evils from arising while there is yet time which in the future will be remedied with difficulties and at serious cost. It prompt steps be taken, sanitation may be established on a sound basis and provision may be made for a future increase of population, which seems certain to take place. The recommendations which I venture to as follows :-1.—That an accurate survey be made, on a

Reserves for various purposes, such as military and naval establishments, European and Chinese quarters, and for the protection of the water supply should be determined and laid down both on the plan and on the ground. In short the territory should be laid out like an estate intended for building sites. Funds will not probably be available for execution of the whole project at once, but roads, &c., should be carried out in advance of necupation. It may, in some cases, be desirable to lease land for occupation before the roads are made. In such cases, however, the conditions

22nd January, 1890. FOOD IN THE TROP

LECTURE BY DR. CANTLIE. On Thursday evening Dr. Cantlie delivered a lecture on "Food in the Tropics" to the Hongkong Literary Boolety. In opening the lecturer said the food we got in Hongkong was not so very different in kind from that obtainable elsewhere. In most countries mest or flour in some form was the staple food. Here we had no staple food except fish, although of course the natives

THE WANT OF NOURISHING MEAT AND ITS

Taking meat first, the lecturer reminded his hearers that tesh and musale were same thing. When it was julcy tender we called it flesh, when it was hard and tough we called it muscle. Takbeef, the beaf we got in Hongkong was bad. What was the difference between the mosting of the Sinitary Board: was hold Chinese and the European meat? It was simply a question of fat. In the case of a Chiness on the fat lay on the top of the flesh, in the case of an English or it was incorporated with the fibres. Why was this difference? In-China the ox was put to work for eight or ten years until it was unfit for work when it was fed up to kill. In England the or was kep for about two years, during the whole of which time it was fed for the purpose of killing. Hence the ment we got in the tropics was not in good condition and not nonrishing. It did not contain the albumen or mark hence we made great use of condi-Mr. CHADWICK said the general objection to | ments and sendes. We found that we got no ing meat probably three times a day and two or After some discussion it was agreed on the three courses of it to each meal. What was the ways felt well till he setually got the disease, and then all at once his nowers burn to flag. he began to lose weight, his liver got out of order and all because he was overdosing himself with most because the meat he took was lacking in albumenoids. The mutton that farthest; point south at which the shoop not expect to get good mutton. Pork he need not touch upon because no one dealt with that The best food we could get then was fowl. Fowls were: procurable everywhere. They were easily digestible and without them life in some parts of the tropics would be absolutely impossible. Of ourse it must not be forgotten that the fewl obainable in the tropics, where it had to pick up its own livelihood, was a very different thing to the size bird at home. WANT OF VARIETY IN COOKING. One great want here, said the lecturer, is the want of variety in our cooking. The Chinaman believes in "olo custom" and will cook in the same way probably for the next hundred years. I'be meat is always roasted in the same fashion and that fashion allows of the drippings from the meat to baseld to someous else, their place being supplied by Chinese fat or oil. I fancy if we only knew what the cook uses for some of our sauces and so on we should not be Fory ready to eat them. I confess I do not know what he uses and I trust you never will. I think the best method of d aling with Mr. Humeners objected to any stringly the mest we get here is by slowing. The mest

VEGETABLES AND PRUITS. In this Colony we are fairly well supplied with for their production, but you will find they are sat the vegetable and for us to est the cow. In digest the vegetable itself. With regard to fruits, I have heard many people here say we have no fruits, but I cannot agree with them. We never wit down to a meal without having two or three be admitted that fruit grown without cultivation does not yield the same amount of nutrition as cultivated fruit. Fish is an article that we can get plenty of here and which deserves far more attention than is given to it. It is the only thing that stands here on the same basis as at home. 25 42 The one thing we have to complain of here is the system of keeping it alive in tubs. The Government of Hongkong would be conferring a very great benefit if they would not permit such a practice. If we could do away with it we might get fish as at home and fish would be one of the best foods we can get in mutton or beef here, or cultivate good vegetables, but we have at our very doors a plentiful kinds of fruit on the table. Of course, it must supply of good, wholesome food in the shape of fish, if we but take proper measures to obtain it. WHY ALCOHOL IS A MECESSITI. We have four social vices here, alcohol ten, tobacco, and coffee. You find here alcohol is a necessity. Now, what is the resson of that ? Whatever people may say a man does not drink without an appetite for it any mere than he takes food without an appetite. In the ropics you often find that men drink to excess but do not run away, with the idea that a man is a drunkard because he likes to be so. He drinks because he has a craving for some stimulant. We load our systems with meat, we take no exarouse and then we find it necessary to flog our de-gustion by taking alcohol. ONE WINEGLASS OF WHISKY PEN DAY. Then we come to the question how much alcodolmay by taken. Suppose you take it in the form of brandy or whiskey, a wine glass per day, and that should be taken at media .- Of course alcohol can be taken in other forms. It can be taken as the testetaller taken it in the form of sugar. Beer is too heavy for this climate. Stout is a little more stimulating, but claret is one of the best things to drink. Claret helps our digestions and it contains certain salts that we miss in the recetables here, and so prevents scorbutio discases. As I have already mentioned many people take whickey with their mosts and half a wine-glass for tiffin and the same for dinner, well diluted, will injure nobody. TOO EARLY TO BED. With regard to the times we take our meals de not say anything against the breakfast hour, or the tiffin hour, but I do of the dinner hour. Or perhaps not so much of the dinner the time we take dian-z; and the time we go to bed. Most of us do not sit down to dinner till eight we do not finish till nine, and then with our dinner undigested we go to bed at ten, and the consequence is we get up in the morning narefreshed. Let two or three hours clapse and give your dinner time to digest before retiring

MR. CHATER AND THE LAND COMPANY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS." SIE. The ramour, current to-day in the Colony, that Mr. Chater has resigned his seat on the Board of Directors of the Land Company may have surprised many, but it must surely be a source of deep regret to all the shareholders. By most people who are interested Mr. Chater. is regarded as the Land Company itself, and without his being at the head of the management public confidence in the concern cannot be the same, which will probably soon be shewn by the quotation for the stock of this Company, for one, am certainly of opinion that Mr. Chater should be induced by his many friends to reconsider his decision and, in the interests of the shareholders, be made to withdraw his resignation, even if it be necessary to call another meeting of the Company to pass a vote of confidence in him as a. There was a fire about midnight. I increment, who have done the harm to this place : was marking at the time. The game was a long it has been the land jobbers. It is they who power, while at the same time reserving her I heard a noise and looked out and saw a have raised the price of land and houses till rents rights in the debated territory. No one told ins. I was on the first floor have reached a price almost unbeard of in any the street lighted up and I run down into the ingwill not equal Cornhill or the Broadway for street as far as the pawnship. I then came back some years to come. I first saw. Hongkong beand told Mr. Gomes, who was at another billiard tween twenty and thirty years ago and have closetable. I know the shop, because I have taken by watched its progress ever since, and if I have letters from the Club to it. I was in the Club ever been convinced of any thing it is of this; to-day had it not been for land jobbing. By Mr. Wotton-I was in the same room all large population has been drawn to the place in was. Mr. Gomes might have gone out, but I saw | mans have required very much higher wages than playing, billiards from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. He this rainous evil, the greatest evil that ever befold to a telegram having been received from the played three or four games. I am sure he played any rising town. And having kept away labour it necessarily follows that it has kept away capital. When capital comes for one purpose it is soon marking all the time. He had just finished when followed by capital for other purposes, and the alarm of fire was given. I do not know who the capital brings the labour, and the population makes a trade. Other trades can tre where the population is. Witness the rise and progress of a city like Glasgow. now the second in the Empire, or take London itself. Had rents been muc higher there than elsewhere these cities would never have grown as they have. There is real ly no reason why living here should not be at most as cheap as in Canton; no reason, that the insult offered by the tearing down of the is except this ourse of land jobbing. Had i been, the Hongkong of to-day would have I now this to did not play that night been, the Hongkong of to-day would have There banks would not play that night ounted half a million souls at least. There is plenty of room on the island, abundance and to spare: there is no limit to the population till the water runs out, and there is enough water for two millions. We heard a great deal some months ago about the making of Hongkong. I say, and others say, that the causes then put forward as having been the making of Hongkong have been the causes which have retarded its progress and retarded it immensely. However, rents will come down and then the price of land will fall; that will bring rents down farther and then land will fall again. The population will not increase the price of land, but the fall in value will increase the population. When the heavy weight that bears us down is lifted Hongkong will rise and become the greatest city in Asia. Do not suppose that I have been soured by osses in land speculation, as I never lost a penns and suppose not that I am one of the unfortu nates, unsuccessful in everything; I am in a fair way of living, but being interested in the progress of our Colony I point out what believe has been more to our detriment than anything else, and Fray that anything that will remedy the evil should have our most earnest consideration. You cannot expect to ours a disease until you have diagnosed the cause. The remedy, I think, lies to a great extent in short renewable leases, and I say beware of the public for subscriptions, and said the Queen had Planting -. as to whether it will pay you to buy. I will next, Sir, with your permission, address you on the subject of share jobbing .- Yours
